GOES IN ON HIS MERIT.

CLEVELAND TALKS ON THE SUBJECT OF APPOINTMENTS.

He Will Do What He Thinks is Right and Take the Consequences—Plenty of Material for a Bona Fide Workingman to Head the Department of Labor.

New York, Aug. 21.—The Herald's Washington special says: A striking instance of the persistence with which President Cleveland holds a predetermined course of action will shortly come to light. There will be a retirement in the subsistence department which will cause several promotions and leave vacancy of a captaincy to be filled by appointment. The position is desirable, and there has been a flood of applications from every quarter pouring in upon the president.
 Your correspondent is able to report a conversation which a gentleman had with President Cleveland on Thursday last concerning army appointments and the prospective vacancy in particular.

"On entering office," said the president, "I found that it had been customary to fill staff positions and other places like this captaincy by the appointment of relative or personal friends of the appointing power or of politicians. In fact, the most flagrant nepotism prevailed. Old men who had arrived almost at the age of retirement were appointed from civilian life to positions which officers who had served in the army for years should have received. Second lieutenants from West Point and men with strong backing were pushed into staff positions, and far more deserving and meritorious officers were ignored. The army was made the tool of politicians, and I determined to stop it."

"When I have left the presidency," Mr.
 Cleveland added emphatically, "I hope that I shall have put appointments to the army in such a position that no subsequent administration will dare to revert to former practices."

"These so-called 'soft places' belong to long and meritorious service and would it be right to pass over first and second lieutenants who have served from fifteen to twenty years in the service without even reaching a captaincy and appoint to this vacancy one who has served but six years? Yet that is what I am asked to do. There are over sixty applications for this place and I do not know of a recent appointment which has caused me more annoyance or made me more enemies than this one will."

"There is a young second lieutenant, the one of whom I spoke, who had the strongest possible political and social backing. It was necessary to tell his friends that he could not have places. By doing so I have made many enemies. But it would have been wrong to promise him the appointment. I have sent to all the department commanders and to the adjutant general, asking who is best fitted and most deserving of this place. I do not want to see the man who will get it. He will be appointed on his record. The man who is found on consultation and comparison of recommendations to be the most deserving and most fitted will get the place. The patronage of the army has been looked upon and treated as a perquisite of the president under the past administrations. It will not be so by me."

The Labor Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—If the president desires to select a bona fide workingman for the newly created position of chief of the National department of labor, he will have no difficulty in making a selection. It is understood that a list of representatives of the working classes has been prepared for his information, and, according to current gossip, it is about as heterogeneous a collection as could possibly be desired.

There is Powderly and Jarrett, of course; then Richard Griffiths, of Chicago, general worth foreman of the knights; George Schilling, of the same city, noted for his connection with the Socialistic agitation; Nelson, the labor nominee for mayor of Chicago at the last election; Robert Schilling, the well known agitator, of Milwaukee; T.
 Gould, of Indianapolis; Tom Barry and Bartley Green, of Michigan; Tom O'Reilly, the sweet singer of the telegraphers, of New York; T. McGuire, the head and front of the Carpenters' National union, and a score or more of others.

It is not thought, however, that the president will be in a hurry to make a selection, and it would not surprise his intimate friends if the labor ranks should fail to furnish the appointee.

Arizona Indians Quiet.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Adj. Gen. Drum has received the following dispatch from Maj. Gen. Howard, dated at San Francisco, August 18:

"I am gratified to report the substantial close of the Arizona outbreak in the following dispatch from the commanding officer of the department of Arizona: With the exception of one man, who escaped from the guard house five months ago, and who is now seriously disabled, and one other, who is now in. The two referred to are within a short distance and will be in or arrested.
 Their offenses are against other Indians. In all other respects matters are in the same condition and as peaceably as formerly. I start back to-day for my headquarters at Los Angeles."

Rumors of Another Peace.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—A local Sunday paper says that there is a story float that Mr. Joseph Pulitzer is going to establish at an early day a two cent morning Democratic paper in Washington. It is said that by utilizing the special cable dispatches of the World, and the extensive news facilities of the World and Post-Dispatch in this country he expects to be able to render a press service superfluous.

At Louisville, John Keitz was found in a hotel in a starving condition, with his boy at death's door from fever, and his only daughter's corpse lying putrefying in a corner. He had left his job to nurse his daughter, and had exhausted all his means.

At Marion, near Ironton, O., a crowd of toughs disturbed a reunion of the Sons of Veterans, got a sheriff's posse after them, and suffered a great deal of damage to their persons. Five of the toughs are in jail. Five brothers named Gilmour are now in the woods with Winchester rifles waiting to give the sheriff a reception.

THURMAN AND HARRISON.

The Former to Go to Michigan and the Latter to Middle Bass Island.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 21.—The managers of the Columbus & Hoeking Valley railway have tendered Judge Thurman a special train, to follow the regular train, to Toledo, his trip to Port Huron, Mich. The special will leave this city about 4 o'clock p. m., with Judge Thurman and a select party, consisting of his son Allen W., Congressman Outhwaite, Congressman Hatch, correspondents and representatives of the press.

Arrangements have been made to tender the "Old Roman" grand receptions at Delaware, Marion and other places en route. The special will reach Toledo at 9 p. m., where the party will be turned over to the Port Huron reception committee, and they will proceed to the latter place on Tuesday morning.

The mass meeting occurs on Wednesday, and from Port Huron Judge Thurman and party go to Chicago, where a large meeting will be held on the 25th, at Cheltenham beach.

In addition to Judge Thurman at the Chicago meeting will be ex-Governor Palmer, Congressman Mills, of Texas; Wilson, of Virginia, and Gen. Black.

Harrison at Toledo.

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 21.—At the earnest solicitation of Toledo Republicans Gen. Harrison was induced to change his plans regarding his visit to Middle Bass island. Instead of going direct to Middle Bass on his arrival here he will be tendered a grand reception. In the evening all Republican clubs will be out in full uniform and parade the streets in a monster torchlight procession.

Gen. Harrison will make a brief address, as will Governor Foraker and others.
 Wednesday morning Gen. Harrison will go to Middle Bass. During his visit there he will hold conferences with Chairman M. P.
 Quay and other members of the National committee, and it is understood that his letter of acceptance will be promulgated from that place.

Hovey and Matson.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Representatives Hovey and Matson, the Republican and Democratic candidates respectively for the governorship of Indiana, will probably leave next week to begin a joint canvass for the campaign. Representative Matson says that it has always been customary for the candidates to canvass together, and although the exact time has not yet been agreed upon the canvass will probably begin about the 1st of September.

BOOMING.

The Centennial of the Ohio Valley and Central States.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—The centennial is now in its eighth week, and the attendance is steadily increasing.

A big train load of excursionists came over the Ohio & Mississippi Sunday night, and several thousand excursionists are expected from St. Louis.

This will be a busy week at the exposition.
 Tuesday is iron-worker's day, Wednesday the harness and leather men will have a day, and Saturday is clerks' day.

The attendance last Saturday exceeded by 2,153 any other day.

The drummer's held a meeting at the Palace hotel to arrange for drummer's day at the exposition, September 15. Invitations will be sent to all the drummers in the country.
 An enormous crowd is expected and a big parade will be given. The awarding of premiums will begin about Sept. 1. The committee on judges and awards has been busy appointing judges.

Sporting Notes.

The Cincinnati are first in fielding and fifth in batting.

Gunberg won first prize, £50, in the Bradford chess tournament.

Entries for the Latonia states number 497 as against 392 last year.

Cincinnati began a series of three games with Cleveland Monday.

The Tri-State League will not disband.
 Sandusky and Mansfield will finish the season with the league.

Angelus, Fanchetta, Hornpipe, Glendella, Winslow and Charles Reed won at the Chicago races Saturday.

Dad and Business, the famous running horses belonging to John Thompson, were injured by kicks at Saratoga.

Winners at Monmouth Park races Saturday were Fitzroy, Senorita, Taragon, Hypocrite, Maroon, Bowland and Jim Mc-Gowan.

Tom Cannon has challenged William Muldoon to wrestle for $1,000 and the gate receipts in eight weeks from the signing of articles.

Jake Kilrain left Liverpool on the Etruria for this country Saturday. He says Sullivan's challenge is all talk. He is ready to meet him at any time, and has deposited $5,000 for a go with him.

Fight at a Slugging Match.

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 21.—About midnight Saturday night at a slugging exhibition in a Galena street drive, A. V. Carey, propertor of the place and William Doherty settled an old feud with a dirk and a revolver. Carey was fatally stabbed and J.
 T. Harrington, a spectator, was also disem-boweled by Doherty and died in a few hours. Carey fired several shots without effect. Doherty resisted arrest desperately, flashing his knife in the face of the officers but was finally jailed.

Never Have and Never Will.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—There was a rumor current in Lake Saturday night that the Santa Fe company was intending to employ Chinamen to lay their tracks over the right of way recently secured through Lake.
 Charles F. Thornton, the company's attorney, was seen last night and said the company never employed Chinamen and did not anticipate doing so now.

Dr. Fischer Suicides.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.—Dr. A. K.
 Fischer, a well known German writer and politician, committed suicide Saturday night by taking opium. He was forty-six years old. He had suffered reverses in the publishing business, and had just arranged to enter the service of the National Republican committee.

COUNT VON WALDERSEE.

SKETCH OF FIELD MARSHAL VON MOLTKE'S SUCCESSOR.

His Appointment Partially Due to the Finance of His American Wife—The German War Spirit Being Aroused by the Emperor's Speeches—Foreign Notes.

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—Count Von Waldersee, who has succeeded at the head of the German military staff through the retirement of Field Marshal Von Moltke, is a most ambitious man with an equally ambitious wife.

He owes distinction preferment to the personal favor of the late Kaiser William and the finesse of his American helpmeet. The latter is a daughter of a New York banker named David Lea, and was created in 1874 by the emperor of Austria a Princess Von Noer in her own right, on the occasion of her morganatic marriage with Prince Frederick, of Schleswig-Holstein.

She was but twenty-four years of age when she captivated the septuagenarian prince.

After a quiet wedding in Paris the curiosity assorted couple made a bridal trip to Egypt. At Cairo he was induced to bequeath to her every penny of his enormous wealth, aggregating $4,000,000. While at Beirut the gouty old prince was seized with apoplexy and died suddenly. Thus, after only six months of married life, the young American girl found herself free to marry again, a princess of the Austrian empire, and one of the wealthiest women in all Europe. Princess Von Noer lost no time in casting about for a more congenial marital partner, and among the most desirable of her suitors was the Count Von Waldersee.

By the time the princess' first year of wid-oohood had expired the battle of Sadowa had been fought, and the count had been promoted in rank from a colonel to major general. A marriage followed, and the couple took up their residence in Berlin.
 Aided by his charming wife's superior tact and wealth, he now became one of the most distinguished personages at the capital. A favorite of Field Marshal Von Moltke, and holding the high favorite of the great chancellor, he was looked upon as the latter's representative on the military staff.

During the Franco-German war he greatly distinguished himself, and when increasing infirmities forced Von Moltke to ask for a deputy he was appointed, with the title of quartermaster-general of the imperial German empire. His wife's salon had in the mean time become a power, as it was the rallying place of the chancellor's party as opposed to that of the anti-Bismarckian court factions. These circumstances furnished a clue to the influences which resulted in the count's appointment as successor to the great strategic commander, Von Moltke.

Europe Alarmed.

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—There is no doubt that Emperor William's second oratorical effort on Saturday on the occasion of a luncheon given him by the First infantry guards has confirmed the general impression that a war with France is among the unavoidable events of the near future. The earnest desire of the French government and the French people to avoid war at this time, when France has no European alliances, is evinced by the dignified silence of the French press in regard to William's bellicose insults.
 The emperor's speeches are emphasized by the active reformatory program which he has suddenly inaugurated in the army.
 Generals and officers grown old in the service and unfit for active duty are rapidly being displaced by younger men, of whom the former, with Von Moltke at their head, become the instructors. Not only that but the army is being kept in motion all over the country in such work as testing new addresses for the cavalry, and newly invented tent cloths, two of which, when buttoned together, afford a water-proof shelter tent.

Almost daily he is testing divisions of the army by sudden alarms of invasion or other device, to be assured that it is everywhere on the alert and ready for action. One morning last week the Hussar harracks at Potsdam were all astrid. The men were tumbling from their cots at daybreak in order to check an assumed invasion from the direction of Spandau. Some of the officers were too deliberate in their movements, and received reprimands in consequence. Some were placed under arrest.

Efforts are being made to find some purpose of the young emperor in making such uncalculated thrusts at France, whose pride could not be wounded in a more sensitive spot, that is in the interest of or consistent with an expectation of peace. But such efforts have failed. His apparent purpose was to intensify the bellicose sentiment in Germany against France, and such probably was his real purpose. This is only consistent with his expectation that war is unavoidable in the near future.

It followed closely upon the action of Russia in permitting her semi-official press to harp upon the Schleswig-Holstein question as one which is still, as well as Alsace-Lorraine, subject to adjustment, since Denmark was undoubtedly robbed of those principalities and still claims them. Moreover, the czar recognizes Denmark's claim, and her own a special right as representative of the Holstein-Gottorp house, to support Denmark when she shall make a demand. There is reason for European alarm, and the very sudden elevation of younger and fighting men to army command is indicative of war.

More News of the White Pasha.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The opinion is now generally prevalent, based on most reliable evidence, that the white man in the Bah-El-Gazel district is really Stanley. Natives arrived at Suakin report that several white men accompany the "Bearded White Pasha," and if this be true there can be no doubt of the identity of the leader, as Emin has no white followers. In December, 1887, seven months after Stanley left the Congo, Dr.
 Schweinfurth, the explorer, wrote from Cairo that news had been received of the junction of Stanley and Emin Bey. Although this was not confirmed, yet no reliable news from either has been secured since, and it is not improbable that it was true, and that they are operating together.

Gladstone Defends Parnell.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—Mr. Gladstone, addressing a deputation of Liberals of Bur-stem, who had presented him with a vase, said the government had treated Mr. Parnell with gross inequality when they refused to allow an inquiry into the Times charges against him by a select committee of the house of commons.

The charges against Mr. Parnell, he said, would, if proved, destroy everything he valued—political power and position. But he was going to be tried on vague general charges. Mr. Gladstone declared he would never believe Mr. Parnell guilty of personal dishonor. The inquiry, he said, might last for years, which would mean pecuniary ruin for Mr. Parnell.

The Turk Very Helpless.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—Financially Turkey is in a helpless condition. She has been making Herculean efforts to place herself in a condition of defense, and now her army is unpaid and in no agreeable mood, and several German officers have resigned, the Porte having refused to increase their pay and guarantee its payment.

Italy in Africa.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 21.—It is stated in well informed circles that Italy's note in relation to the seizure of Massowah does not affect Russia's attitude on the question. Russia, it is said, will conform to the views of Turkey, whose interests are prejudiced by the seizure and who is alone competent to declare the incident closed.

Riotous Strikers.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—Tumult continued throughout Sunday at Amiens. The military were compelled to make a charge with fixed bayonets on the striking workmen in order to clear the streets.

At Lille similar scenes were enacted and fourteen persons put under arrest.

Foreign Notes.

Parnell is in possession of proof that he is not the author of the Times letters.

The pope is suffering from rheumatism, but was able to give audience to the cardinals Sunday.

Primer Crispi started for Carlsbad Sunday. He will visit Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruhe during the week.

Additional volcanic eruptions have occurred in the Lipari islands, and a shock of earthquake was felt at Port Maurice, in the Riviera Monday.

Mahmond Pasha, ex-minister of finance, is accused of having embezzled $75,000 of the government's funds, and on inquiry, with open doors, will be instituted at once.

Schonerl, the anti-Semitic leader, who is to undergo a term of imprisonment, was met on his arrival at Vienna by thousands of adherents. The police and military had to interfere to prevent riots. Eleven persons were arrested.

It is announced that Lieut. Wiseman, who is now in Egypt on route to Zanibar, is a member of the Emin Bey relief committee.
 If the relief expedition proves successful, it is intended to form and maintain a commercial highway, with stations from the lakes eastward. For this purpose the "German-African Lakes company" will be formed.

Gen. Boulanger was elected to the chamber of deputies in the department of Somme Sunday by a majority of 34,725. He also heads the polls in the Charente and Nord departments. The announcement of the figures caused great excitement in Paris.
 However, it merely emphasizes the fact that he is being upheld by the reactionaries for revolutionary purposes. They simply give him their strength, and that is not so considerable as to much endanger the republic.

German Red Men of Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—The biennial session of the grand lodge of Ohio, German Independent Order of Red Men, began Sunday afternoon at Germania hall, on Court street, with Grand Chief Fred H. Bitterlick presiding. There are thirty-five representatives of the nine lodges of Cleveland present, and twenty-five from Cincinnati. The election of officers of the grand lodge of the state had the following result: Grand high chief, Charles Hess, of Cincinnati; grand chief, William Marbach, of Cleveland; assistant grand chief, Anton Theuring, of Cincinnati; grand priest, William Born, of Cleveland; grand secretary, Fred Wagenbauer, of Cleveland; grand treasurer, Frances Luther, of Cleveland. The meeting will be continued for several days.

A Dying Woman's Strange Request.

PERU, Ind., Aug. 21.—Amongst the strange and startling requests made when near death's door is that of Mrs. M. Taylor, of this city, who is slowly nearing her end from tumor of stomach, and requests when dead that both hands and feet be severed from the body and also that the heart be removed and sent to France for burial, interment of the other portion of the body to occur here.
 The strange request will be complied with by her daughter.

Two Negroes Shot to Death.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 21.—News is received of the killing of two negroes by a mob, at Sylvan jail, in Smith county, Mississippi, last Friday night, and four negroes were under arrest for killing a white man named Lee. The mob broke into the jail but were unable to get into the cage where the accused negroes were confined, so they thrust their guns through the bars and shot two of the prisoners to death.

An Epidemic Spreading.

A Gala Week

The three great attractions in Maysville this week will doubtless draw the greatest crowd our city ever had. They are, viz: The Democratic Congressional Convention, Kentucky's Blue Ribbon Fair, and last, but not quite the least, HECHINGER & CO.'S DISPLAY of everything that pertains to GENTLEMEN'S and BOYS' OUTFITS!

Gentlemen of the Convention: When you get hot in the collar, drop in and get our elegant Collars, Shirts and Neckwear. No house in the State equals our display in this line.

Visitors to the Fair Grounds: Before you go to the grounds get one of our Scotch Flannel Negligee Shirts, the most comfortable and elegant Shirt for out-door use in the world. After the races you want to come in and fix up for the hop. We will show you a complete assortment of such as you never saw before. We imported these goods for this particular occasion! A word in reference to Our Tailoring Department: All Kentuckians are good dressers—a well-dressed man indicates that he respects himself as well as the society he moves in. We have catered so long to the Tailoring trade of Eastern Kentucky that we lay some claim to the (call it egotism if you will) good taste displayed by our patrons. Gentlemen, you must see our display of Woolens for Fall wear, whether you desire to order a Suit or not. Come in and see our stock of Merchant Tailoring Goods. We display quite a line of them in the front part of our store. Give them a glance as you pass.

Our MR. DAVE HECHINGER, when not on duty as Director at the Fair Grounds, will be found at the store, and hopes to receive calls from his hosts of friends that will be here. We want all to make the ODDFELLOWS' HALL CLOTHING HOUSE headquarters during the rest of the week. We will have an extra force of clerks to attend to the wants of all that will favor us with a call. Parcels and packages cheerfully taken care of for any and everybody. Store open every night until ten o'clock. Very truly yours, HECHINGER & CO.

Republican Free Trade in Labor.

The manufacturers of this country having received all the protection by law that they have asked for, are they not under some moral obligation to deal fairly with the Government and the people who have dealt so kindly with them? How have they met this obligation? Having secured protection from foreign competition, they straightway entered into the free trade markets of the world to buy their labor. This is proved by the testimony of Gilbert B. Whitman, agent of the Armory Manufacturing Company, of Manchester, N. H., an establishment engaged extensively in the manufacture of cotton cloth. This evidence taken under oath will be found in Labor and Capital, volume 3, page 23. It is as follows:

Q. What is the character of your employees?
A. About one-third of our help are Canadians; the remainder are of mixed nationalities, the Irish element predominating. Then come the English, the Scotch and the German.

Q. What proportion are Americans?
A. Out of eight hundred operatives, probably we have eighty Americans.

This is the kind of return these manufacturing establishments give to the people for the protection the Government extends to them against "foreign pauper labor." They enter the free trade market of the world, purchase foreign labor and bring it here to exclude American labor. Do workingmen think the Republican party has acted in good faith?

On this same point we have the testimony of Mr. Charles L. Harding on page 296 of the same volume. Speaking of the woolen manufacture at Dedham, Mass., he says:

"A large portion of the help we have in our mills is foreign."

These are specimen manufacturing establishments. How is it in Pennsylvania, the great protected State of the Union? The laws there give to the mill owners, factory managers and corporations the right to go to the Governor of the State and demand that he shall commission as many corporation police as the owners of those establishments may deem necessary. They are commissioned in the name of the State with power to arrest and detain; and it is made the duty of all Sheriffs and prison-keepers to receive the persons arrested by them and confine them in prison. Thus the State is made the policeman of the protected industries with the corporation as commander-in-chief. This is the kind of protection that labor gets in Pennsylvania.

The strikes that have occurred in the last two years, and particularly those occurring during the past year, establish the melancholy fact beyond question that capital is the master of the situation in this country. Every important strike has failed. The great anthracite strike, the railroad strikes, and even the strike of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the strongest single labor organization within the United States, a strike occurring among a class of workmen where long experience and familiarity with their important and hazardous business was supposed to be necessary—even with this organization the strike was a failure.

It is a lamentable fact that they have been practically driven to the wall. Labor must look to some other remedy and must look quickly. What labor needs now is protection, not so much from competition of foreign manufacturers as from the cruel exactions of corporations, syndicates and trusts.

DEMOCRATS should remember what they accomplished by organization and work at the August election and prepare for the fight in November.

The Republicans have commenced the work of colonizing negro voters in Indiana. Democrats have three hundred of the imported voters "spotted" already in the district opposite Louisville. The scheme is too old to be worked successfully.

CARNEGIE, the millionaire Scotchman who drew $1,500,000 profits from the Thompson Steel Works, has been coaching Mr. Blaine on the tariff business. Result: the Plumed Knight appears as the defender of "trusts," and says no one has a right to interfere with them.

MR. BLAINE has assumed a new role and appears as the defender of "trusts." He says "trusts" are private affairs, and adds that no one has any right to interfere with them. As "trusts" are largely the direct result of the Republican high tariff it is very natural for the leader of that party to defend them.

"Merchant of Venice."

The "Merchant of Venice," as presented by Marie Prescott and R. D. McLean, is as fine an entertainment as can be given out of a Shakespearean repertoire.

While Miss Prescott has very little scope for her genius in the role of Portia, she leaves an impression upon the audience that is not to be obliterated even by the powerful role of Shylock in the hands of this great young actor, R. D. McLean.

She is a beautiful woman, a reader of Shakespeare without a rival, and a thorough artist in every detail. Her Portia cannot be improved upon, it is perfect.—Columbia Record, November 10, 1887.

Miss Prescott and Mr. McLean, supported by a splendid company, will appear at opera house next Friday night in the above play. They open their engagement Wednesday night in "Ingomar."

MISSISS BETTIE AND EMMA YOUNG will begin the fifth year of their school, for young ladies and children, on the first Monday in September.

THE MAYSVILLE FAIR!

AUGUST 22 TO AUGUST 25.

THE BLUE RIBBON FAIR OF KENTUCKY!

THREE RACES EACH DAY! The only fair that gives them. The greatest colts the world has ever seen will meet here, and only here—Susie S., 2:20; Hour, 2:19; Ben Hur, the four-year old of the world; the greatest three-year-old, Linnie, 2:25; Bell Boy, 2:26 and Edgemark, 2:33. All can trot in 2:20. These colts will be met nowhere except at Maysville. The purse races will fill with better horses than ever. The premium list of Harness, Draft, Saddlers and Floral Hall has been much enlarged. New stabling. The grounds greatly improved, making it truly the Fair of Fairs. Come one, come all! A cordial invitation to all is extended. LADIES AND CHILDREN FREE FIRST DAY. Half fare on all railroads. Write for catalogue.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION

Votes as a unit on this one important question: "Where Shall We Buy Clothing--Where are the Best Values Found?" The wise men were of one mind, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the Convention assembled at Maysville recommend to the people of the entire district and the rest of mankind the progressive house of LOUIS ZECH & CO.—better known as The Red Corner Clothing House—for best of Clothing at lowest prices.

Resolved, That this house stands open and alone to do with their wares as they please; have no strings to them, no one to dictate where to buy or when to buy; make no misrepresentations of great sales without foundation; never break faith with the public, and are entitled to our respect and patronage.

Resolved, That the Red Corner Clothiers are original with low prices. They are not like their would-be competitors, waiting to be whipped down. Their methods are aped by would-be leaders who are envious and sour at their unprecedented success.

Resolved, That the Red Corner Clothing House is the only place where you can get first-class Merchant Tailoring, Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and a fine assortment of Full Dress and Flannel Shirts.

Resolved, That we cheerfully recommend every one before leaving Maysville to visit

LOUIS ZECH & CO.'S RED : CORNER : CLOTHING : HOUSE.

THE BULLETIN is indebted to Mr. Thos. Biggar, of Manchester, for one of the finest and largest watermelons brought to town this season. It tipped the beam at thirty-three and one-quarter pounds.

MR. C. W. FOWLER has resigned his position as draughtsman in the office of the Chief Engineer of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company, and left for Central Kentucky, where he will take charge of a school.

MRS. JENNIE PEARCE, of Lexington, has sued her husband, Mr. L. Ed. Pearce formerly of this city, for divorce, alleging among other things that he abandoned her last January. The action has caused a big sensation.

MISS HATTIE GANO, of Cincinnati, one of Murdock's pupils in elocution, has consented to teach elocution and short-hand in Maysville the coming session. Our youth and professional men should take advantage of this opportunity to perfect themselves in these branches.

LADIES visiting the Centennial Exposition, Cincinnati, should not fail to call at the Singer Sewing Machine Company's exhibit (in Park Building) and examine their display of fine art work: Lady visitors, by registering their names, can secure (free of charge) a ticket that will entitle them to a chance on one of their elegant cabinet machines to be given away at the close of the exposition.

WHO WILL IT BE?

The All-Important Question to the Democrats of the Ninth District.

Delegates on Hand to Select a Nominee for Congress.

The Democratic clans of the Ninth district are on hand in large numbers, and the convention to nominate a candidate for Congress meets at Washington Opera House at one o'clock this afternoon.

Rightly looked at the convention is of more than usual importance to the party. The Democratic majority in the House of Representatives has been greatly reduced of late years, and the Republicans are already engaged in preparing for a determined and an unscrupulous fight in all doubtful districts, in an effort to gain full control of both branches of Congress. In this effort they will be backed by their creatures and pets, the giant trusts and monopolies that have grown up and are fostered by the oppressive high tariff which Democrats are seeking to revise. These Republicans at Washington are counting on this district to furnish them a Representative in the next Congress. The district is Democratic on a full and strict party vote. The Republicans know this only too well and they count on disaffection in the ranks of their enemy to help them out. With all their "boodle," distributed so lavishly in the past three campaigns, they would have met with an overwhelming defeat in each race had the full Democratic vote been polled for the Democratic nominee. These are plain words, and true. These Democratic defeats have resulted from factional fights within our ranks, and the time has come for factions to stand aside and give the party a show. It's time to throw aside personal interests and work for the success and welfare of the party. Especially ought this to be done when the great Democratic party is engaged in a contest to retain control of the House of Representatives. This is the situation at present. Wise counsel should prevail in the convention this afternoon, and that candidate selected who can come nearest to harmonizing the party and polling its full strength throughout the district. A united Democracy can redeem the Ninth district without trouble.

The morning trains yesterday brought in large delegations, and the trains last evening were again crowded. Messrs. Paynter, Kellar, Bascom and Castle all have headquarters at the Central Hotel, and the lobby presented an animated scene last night. The "wire-workers" were busy until a late hour and "secret caucuses" and quiet confabs of the friends of the candidates were the order of the evening. Some were looking for "tips" and others were feeling for "pointers." No one seemed to know just how "the thing was going." A few thought the fight was not yet made up. Bascom's friends were a numerous quantity, and were working with a vim. Kellar's friends had their eyes "skun" and were quietly watching the drift of things. They were confident their favorite would win. Paynter's friends were also full of confidence, but were keeping a close watch on the other fellows. Castle came in on the late train and was soon as busy shaking hands as the rest of them.

It is thought but little, if anything at all, was accomplished by the caucusing last night towards a peaceful and harmonious settlement of the contest. The indications point to a warm fight for the nomination.

So far the arrivals are as follows:

THE MAYSVILLE FAIR.

Everything in Readiness and It Will Open To-morrow, Rain or Shine.

Tickets will be on sale at all the drug stores.

Everything is ready for the opening to-morrow, and all that is needed to insure a large attendance is fair weather.

The flower display promises to be an attractive feature of the floral hall. The competitors are Dieterich & Bro. and Mr. Cox, of this city, and Manchester parties.

Edgemark came in on this morning's express, and Susie S., Ben Hur and Bell Boy are expected this evening or to-morrow, along with Mr. Bryan's stable and Macy Brothers' great Linnie.

W. H. Wilson's stable of three horses arrived to-day. They are Budd Doble, who paced second to Bessemer at Cleveland in 2:15; Pattie Cooper entered in 3:00 class, and Smuggle in 2:27 class.

The Brown County Stock Farm's Major Lander came in on the St. Lawrence yesterday, and will trot to-morrow in 3:00 class. All Ripley, it is said, will be on hand to see him and their old favorite Pearl Medium. Let Maysville send her share to see the fleet-footed Pearl, who trots under Mr. Fitzgerald's colors to-morrow. There is no prettier-gaited trotter to be found.

Don't forget the fair begins to-morrow morning whether it rains or shines. Remember it is only a step to the amphitheatre from the railroad station, and the amphitheatre doesn't leak. There are fifteen entries for the 3:00 class. All the western portion of the county will be on hand to see the beautiful Mamie S., (property of Jennings & French, Minerva), trot; and Ripley to see Major Lander. Let all Maysville go to see Pearl Medium.

CAPTAIN GEORGE COLLIER has returned to his old love, and accepted the position of Roadmaster of the Kentucky Central, at this point.

By the order of the Maysville Fair Company I will sell bedroom sets and parlor suits during fair week at 10 per cent. less than any week in this year. HENRY ORT.

THE Lexington Drummer publishes a sensational story about the finding of a wonderful cave on the farm of Ex-Sheriff Perry Jefferson, near Millersburg. Joe Mulhatton has likely been down in Bourbon on a visit.

MESSRS. FELIX A. BARBEE, of the Catlettsburg Leader; J. F. Marcum, of the Kentucky Democrat; John W. Powling, of the Carlisle Mercury; Dr. H. C. Kehoe, of the Carlisle News; Colonel R. W. Harris, of the Flemingsburg True Blue Democrat; H. Duley, of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, and W. T. Havens, of the Dover News, are among the Democratic editors in town attending the Congressional convention.

EVILS OF IMMIGRATION.

WORK OF THE CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

Polish and Hungarian Jews Who Come to This Country and Live in Squalor and Induce to Come to the United States.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Chairman Ford, of the congressional committee investigating the evils of immigration, opened the day's proceedings by calling to the stand Ward Detective Michael J. Reap, of the Eldridge street police station.

Witness said he had been attached to that precinct for a number of years, during which he had noticed the steadily increasing number of Polish and Hungarian Jews within the bounds of the Eleventh precinct. At present they abound in Ludlow, Hester and Essex streets, and in the lower portion of the streets running from Grand to Division street, east of the Bowery.

These foreigners, witness said, are exceedingly filthy in their habits. Home influence is wanting among them. Numbers of them peddle stale vegetables and decaying fruit. They never attempt to learn English. Their living costs but little, very much less than the cost to workingmen of other nationalities. They cause much trouble, and sanitary officers are constantly in their midst to insure partial cleanliness. It is disgusting even to travel where these Poles and Hungarians congregate.

Mrs. Jane Ryan, a young woman employed in Barbour's flax thread mills, in Paterson, N. J., was the next witness. She came over with four other girls in 1885. When asked if her fare was paid, she hesitated and said pitifully: "If I tell the truth Mr. Barbour will not give me any more work."

Finally she admitted that Mr. St. Long, a clerk of Barbour's, had given her a ticket in Ireland. She had paid him back at the rate of fifty cents per week after her arrival.

Witness earned seven shillings per week at home. Here she earned $10 in two weeks. Agreed to work for Mr. Barbour eighteen months. Worked for Barbour from July, 1885, to August, 1887, when she married and left the mill. When she grew ill Mr. Barbour offered to pay her fare home, but she became better and did not go.

About one hundred girls came from the same part of Ireland and are working at Barbour's mills in Paterson. Did not know positively that they came under the same circumstances. Her passage was $15. About one hundred men and boys have also come from Ireland to work in Barbour's mills.

Kate Kearney, a handsome Irish girl, an employee of Barbour, testified that she came here under similar circumstances to that of Mrs. Ryan, but would not say that any agreement was made about wages. When threatened with imprisonment for contempt she burst into tears and was led to another room to recover her composure.

A CANAL NUISANCE.

Citizens of Wabash Object to Having It Dry to Breed Disease.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 21.—The old Wabash & Erie canal, running through the business part of this city has been nearly dry for the past ten days. As the canal has been used as a receptacle for sewage and garbage, its banks are in a very filthy condition, from which a fearful stench is emitted. An epidemic is threatened in the business part of town.

Between this city and Lagro, five miles east, along which distance the canal is dry also, there are great numbers of dead fish in the canal, and the adjoining pike is almost impassable by the frightful odors arising from the carcasses. The canal is owned by the Evansville, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway. This company refuses to repair the dam at Lagro, so the canal can fill up with water, which would abate the nuisance. Legal measures have been ordered to declare the canal a nuisance. Years ago it was the great commercial channel along the Wabash valley.

Gatling Patents Another Invention.
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Dr. R. J. Gatling, the inventor of the Gatling gun has spent several years of study upon a new method of making heavy ordnance, and as a result has obtained patents upon an invention which may revolutionize the system of manufacturing heavy missile projectors now in vogue. Dr. Gatling's new invention is stated to be the casting of the heaviest ordnance in solid steel around a central core, which is used in several ways for alleviating the disadvantages of the old style guns. The result, it is claimed, will result in the production of an infinitely better gun at a reduction of 50 per cent. in cost.

Accident to a Young Lady.
WELLSVILLE, O., Aug. 21.—Florence Wallace, daughter of a farmer living near, met with a singular accident Sunday that may cause the amputation of both hands. The farm hands were unloading with a patent fork, while the young lady held a rope to steady it. The horse suddenly started, and her hands were drawn into the pulley. The members were shockingly lacerated.

Killed at a Balloon Ascent.
STURGIS, Mich., Aug. 21.—While a balloon was being inflated here Saturday one of the guy ropes attached to a large pole which held the air ship gave way, causing it to fall into the crowd. The twelve-year-old son of Mr. Graftmiller was instantly killed and a fifteen-year-old son of Mr. Appleman hurt so badly that he died a few hours later. Several others were bruised.

The Fate of a Cripple.
OROVILLE, Cal., Aug. 21.—A cripple named William Feiliter, who could walk only with two canes, lived in a lonely cabin near here. On Friday night the cabin burned down and a search discovered his mangled body found about thirty feet away. It was evident he had been badly burned and that mountain lions had dragged off his body to feed on it.

A Tariff Battle.
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The World says that the New York Free Trade club has challenged the New York Protective league to a debate on protection and free trade, Henry George to represent the Free Trade club and Col. Ingersoll the Protective league. The debate will probably take place in September in this city.

Tragedy in the Maine Woods.
FORT FAIRFIELD, Me., Aug. 21.—Maj. Howes and family, of Boston, with Indian guides, forming a party of ten persons in three canoes, while passing up the Tobique river, thirty-six miles from Andover, were fired on by unknown persons, and Mrs. Howes was instantly killed. No clue to the
